

The National Department of Health would like to confirm the first case of Cholera detected in Mpumalanga Province and the patient has unfortunately passed away.

The deceased was a 73 year old female from Mamatlake hospital, which is close to Hammanskraal area. This brings the death toll to 25.

Members of the public are urged to remain vigilant and exercise personal hygiene, while those experiencing Cholera symptoms are urged to present themselves to the nearest health facility.