1. INTRODUCTION

Bhekisisa Development Media NPC, trading as the Bhekisisa Centre for Health Journalism, is an independent nonprofit media startup that focuses on health and social justice reporting in South Africa. In addition to our website, our stories are distributed through News24, the Daily Maverick, Business Day, the Mail & Guardian and TimesLIVE.

Bhekisisa, isiZulu for “to scrutinise”, started off as the Mail & Guardian’s health desk in 2013. When we left the Mail & Guardian in July 2019 to become an independent organisation, we were the newspaper’s largest specialist desk with seven full-time staff members. Today, we have a 16-strong staff component.

Our team is trained in evidence-based reporting and solutions journalism. It is supported by a strong multimedia and engagement team, focused on reaching established decision-makers, as well as younger, upcoming ones. Across our social media accounts – X, Facebook, Instagram, LinkedIn, and YouTube – we have over 46 000 followers.

One of Bhekisisa’s objectives is to create a new generation of health journalists. We are proud that all of the journalists who started off with us have moved to other publications as health journalists or medical editors. Our team members’ more than 50 African journalism awards are a testament to their excellence in craft. These include the Discovery Health Journalist of the Year (2013, 2014, 2016, 2018), the overall winner of the Standard Bank Sisivile Newspaper Journalist of the Year (2015), the CNN African Features Journalist of the Year (2016), the Standard Bank Sisivile Features (2014, 2015, 2016, 2018) and The Standard Bank Sisivile Columns/Editorial Journalist of the Year (2018, 2022).

Bhekisisa is funded by the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation, the Wellcome Trust and the Millennium Trust. We have also received support from the Open Society Foundations’ public health programme, the Regional Sexual and Reproductive Health Rights Fund and Global Health Strategies. We generate additional income through newsletter advertising and sponsored events with policymakers and specialist audiences. We are also paid to moderate discussions, including the 2022 World Health Assembly media roundtable of the Global Fund to fight AIDS, TB and Malaria. Our work reaches policymakers, academics, activists and political leaders, and our stories have often held power to account through shifts in policy and setting national agendas.

2. THE ACT

The Promotion of Access to Information Act, No 2 of 2000 ("The Act" or "PAIA") was enacted on 3 February 2000, giving effect to the right of access to any information held by Government, as well as any information held by another person who is required for the exercising or protection of any rights. This right is entrenched in the Bill of Rights in the Constitution of South Africa. Where a request is made in terms of The Act, the body to which the request is made is not obliged to release the information, except where The Act expressly provides that the information may or must be released. The Act sets out the requisite procedural issues attached to such request.

3. PURPOSE OF THE MANUAL

In order to promote effective governance of private bodies, it is necessary to ensure that everyone is empowered and educated to understand their rights in terms of The Act in order for them to exercise their rights in relation to public and private bodies.

Section 9 of The Act, however, recognizes that such right to access to information cannot be unlimited and should be subject to justifiable limitations, including, but not limited to:

- Limitations aimed at the reasonable protection of privacy;
- Commercial confidentiality; and
- Effective, efficient and good governance

And in a manner that balances that right with any other rights, including such rights contained in the Bill of Rights in the Constitution.

This PAIA Manual assist you to-

- 3.1 check the categories of records held by Bhekisisa Development Media NPC which are available without a person having to submit a formal PAIA request;
- 3.2 have a sufficient understanding of how to make a request for access to a record of Bhekisisa Development Media NPC, by providing a description of the subjects on which Bhekisisa Development Media NPC holds records and the categories of records held on each subject;
- 3.3 know the description of the records of Bhekisisa Development Media NPC which are available in accordance with any other legislation;
- 3.4 access all the relevant contact details of the Information Officer and Deputy Information Officer(s) who will assist you with the records you intend to access;
- 3.5 know the description of the guide on how to use PAIA, as updated by the Information Regulator, and how to obtain access to it;
- 3.6 know if Bhekisisa Development Media NPC processes personal information and the purpose of processing of personal information;
- 3.7 know the description of the categories of data subjects and the information or categories of information relating thereto;
- 3.8 know the recipients or categories of recipients to whom the personal information may be supplied;
- 3.9 know if Bhekisisa Development Media NPC plans to transfer or process personal information outside the Republic of South Africa and the recipients or categories of recipients to whom the personal information may be supplied; and
- 3.10 know whether Bhekisisa Development Media NPC has appropriate security measures to ensure the confidentiality, integrity and availability of the personal information which is to be processed.

9.4 Planned transborder flows of personal information

In some cases, the third parties to whom we may disclose your personal information may be located outside your country of residence (for example, in a cloud service, system or server), and may be subject to different privacy regimes. Information is stored in the Google environment, and currently, this is outside of South Africa – either in the US or Europe.

When we disclose personal information overseas, we will take appropriate safeguards to protect your personal information to ensure that the recipient will handle the information in a manner consistent with this policy and the level of protection provided for in POPIA.

9.5 General description of Information Security Measures to be implemented by the responsible party to ensure the confidentiality, integrity and availability of the information

Bhekisisa shall maintain written security policies that are fully implemented and applicable to the processing of personal information. At a minimum, such policies should include developing reasonable security safeguards against risks, losses, unauthorised access, destruction, use, modification or disclosure of personal information; and internal responsibility for information security management.

Information security measures include:

- Locked file cabinets for all hard copy documents containing personal information;
- Training to make employees and others with access to the personal information aware of information security risks presented by the processing;
- Employees required to ensure that all sensitive/confidential information in hardcopy or electronic form is secure in their work area at the end of the day and when they are expected to be gone for an extended period;
- Password protection must be enabled on laptops when the workspace is unoccupied;
- Portable computing devices such as laptops and tablets must be shut down completely at the end of the workday and locked away in a drawer/filing cabinet if left in the office overnight;
- Any personal information must be removed from the desk and locked in a drawer when the desk is unoccupied, and at the end of the workday;

- File cabinets containing personal information must be kept closed and locked when not in use or when not attended;
- Keys used for access to personal information must not be left at an unattended desk;
- Passwords may not be left on sticky notes, posted on or under a laptop, nor may they be left written down in an accessible location;
- Printouts containing personal information should be immediately removed from the printer;
- Documents containing personal information should be shredded when no longer needed;
- Whiteboards containing restricted and/or sensitive information should be erased;
- Sharing of personal information between employees for their work shall be done using end-to-end encrypted software.

Bhekisisa acknowledges that security requirements are constantly changing and that effective security requires frequent evaluation and regular improvements of outdated security measures. Bhekisisa will therefore evaluate the measures as implemented on an ongoing basis.

10. REQUEST PROCEDURE FOR OBTAINING INFORMATION

Access to records held by Bhekisisa Development Media NPC

Records held by Bhekisisa Development Media NPC may be accessed by request only once the prerequisites for access have been met.

The requester must fulfil the prerequisites for access in terms of The Act, including the payment of a requested access fee.

The requester must comply with all the procedural requirements contained in The Act relating to the request for access to a record.

The requester must complete the prescribed Form 2 (Annexure B) and submit same as well as payment of a request fee and a deposit, if applicable, to the Information Officer at the postal or physical address, fax number or electronic mail address as stated herein.

The prescribed form must be filled in with enough particulars to at least enable the Information Officer to identify –

- The record or records requested;
- The identity of the requester,
- Which form of access is required, if the request is granted;
- The postal address or fax number or email address of the requester.

The requester must state that they require the information in order to exercise or protect a right, and clearly state what the nature of the right to be exercised or protected is. In addition, the requester must clearly specify why the record is necessary to exercise or protect such a right.

Bhekisisa Development Media NPC will process the request within 30 days, unless the requester has stated a special reason that would satisfy the Information Officer that circumstances dictate that the above time periods are not complied with.

The requester shall be informed whether access has been granted or denied in the form of Form 3 (Annexure C). If, in addition, the requester requires the reason for the decision in any other manner, they must state the manner and the particulars so required.

If a request is made on behalf of another person, then the requester must submit proof of the capacity in which the requester is making the request, to the reasonable satisfaction of the Information Officer.

If an individual is unable to complete the prescribed Form because of illiteracy or disability, such a person may make the request orally.

11. FEES

When the Information Officer receives the request, such Officer shall, by notice, require the requester to pay the prescribed request fee (if any), before any further processing of the request.

If the search for the record has been made in the preparation of the record for disclosure, including arrangements to make it available in the requested form, and it requires more than the hours prescribed in the regulation for this purpose, the Information Officer shall notify the requester to pay as a deposit the prescribed portion of the access fee which would be payable if the request is granted.

The Information Officer shall withhold a record until the requester has paid the Fees as indicated.

A requester, whose request for access to a record has been granted, must pay an access fee for reproduction and for search and preparation, and for any time reasonably required in excess of the prescribed hours to search for and prepare the record for disclosure, including making arrangements to make it available in the requested form.

If a deposit has been paid in respect of a request for access, which is refused, then the Information Officer concerned must repay the deposit to the requester.

The fees applicable to a request for information are set out in Annexure A hereto.

The requester must pay the prescribed fee before any further processing can take place.

12. GROUNDS FOR REFUSAL OF ACCESS TO INFORMATION

The main grounds for Bhekisisa Development Media NPC to refuse a request for information relates to the:

- Mandatory protection of the privacy of a third party that is a natural person that would involve the unreasonable disclosure of personal information of that natural person;
- Mandatory protection of the commercial information of a third party, if the record contains:
 - o Trade secrets of that third party;
 - o Financial, commercial, scientific or technical information, disclosure of which could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of that third party;
 - o Information disclosed in confidence by a third party to the Private Body, if the disclosure could put that third party at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition;
- Mandatory protection of confidential information of third parties if it is protected in terms of any agreement;
- Mandatory protection of confidential information of the protection of property;
- Mandatory protection of records that would be regarded as privileged in legal proceedings;
- The commercial activities of Bhekisisa Development Media NPC which may include:
 - o Trade secrets of Bhekisisa Development Media NPC
 - o Financial, commercial, scientific or technical information, disclosure which could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interest of Bhekisisa Development Media NPC ;
 - o Information which, if disclosed could put Bhekisisa Development Media NPC at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition;
 - o A computer program, owned by Bhekisisa Development Media NPC and protected by copyright.
- The research information of Bhekisisa Development Media NPC or a third party, if its disclosure would reveal the identity of Bhekisisa Development Media NPC, the researcher or the subject matter of the research and would place the research at a serious disadvantage;

Requests for information that are clearly frivolous or vexatious, or which would involve an unreasonable diversion of resources shall be refused.

13. DECISION

Bhekisisa Development Media NPC will within 30 days of receipt of the request, decide whether to grant or decline the request and give notice with reasons (if required) to that effect.

The requester shall be informed whether access has been granted or denied in the form of Form 3 (Annexure C). If, in addition, the requester requires the reason for the decision in any other manner, they must state the manner and the particulars so required.

The 30 day period within which Bhekisisa Development Media NPC has to decide whether to grant or refuse the request, may be extended for further period of not more than 30 days if the request is for a large amount of information, or the request requires a search for information held at another office of Bhekisisa Development Media NPC and the information cannot reasonably be obtained within the original 30 day period. Bhekisisa Development Media NPC will notify the requester in writing should an extension be sought.

AVAILABILITY OF THE MANUAL

The manual of Bhekisisa Development Media NPC is available at the premises of Bhekisisa Development Media NPC as well as on the website of Bhekisisa Development Media NPC.
